

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XVIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1890.

NO. 72

CRAB ORCHARD.

—R. H. Bronaugh bought of Isaac Herin 10 head of sloop cattle, averaging 1,037 pounds, at $25 a head.

—Rev. J. G. Livingston has been employed to preach for the Mt. Olivet church next year. The salary is $30.

—There is talk of organizing an amateur dramatic club here. We'll find out something about it next week, unless it does its work behind closed doors.

—Several flocks of wild geese passed over this week en route to the sunny Southland. If the belief of the superstitions deserves any credit we may look for cold weather soon.

—Supt. McClary has appointed Prof. J. W. Smith as one of the examining board for next year. Prof. Smith is a ripe scholar—one thoroughly in love with the schoolmen's profession and one who will conduct next June's ordeal with an eye single to educational betterment.

—Of the more than 500 votes in this precinct only 133 were polled Tuesday in the congressional race, McCreary, democrat, receiving 103 of these, and Gilliam, prohibitionist, 28. The day did not wear the aspect of a great day, but seemed rather like an ordinary Saturday and in this case we can repeat without much embarrassment the hackneyed phrase, "The election passed off quietly."

—Mrs. M. C. Williams, of Mt. Vernon, and her two pretty children, are at W. F. Kennedy's. John S. Edmiston answered Col. Slaughter's "ad." and is now handling dry goods and groceries for the "genial Dan" at his palace store at Paint Lick. Dr. B. F. Zeller is back from Cincinnati with a fine display of Christmas trinkets. Misses Mary Robinson and Rebecca Stuart are spending a couple of weeks in Danville and Perryville. Mr. J. B. White was here Sunday paying his devotions to one of our handsome brunettes. By the way, we hear that Mr. White is to supplant Mr. F. L. Clifford as agent for the L. & N. at Williamsburg. Judge A. M. Egbert has returned from Pineville. Mr. Charles Curtis has rented a farm near Mitchellburg and he and his wife will shortly go thither. Mr. Henry Miller was in town Tuesday. Mrs. M. C. Morgan joined her husband at Pineville this week.

—Emil Forney, a young Switzer, aged 21, living with his uncle, a Frenchman named Gentien, in the neighborhood of Chappell's Gap, committed suicide Tuesday, under circumstances which make the case a peculiarly sad one. About two months ago young Forney came here from the canton of Vaud, Switzerland, lured hither by the dazzling accounts of America sent him by friends on this side of the water, and which described this country as a land flowing with milk and honey. On his arrival here he endeavored to obtain employment from the farmers and woodmen hereabouts, but failing, he went to Lexington, where two of his brothers resided. There he had no better success; and, a short time ago, he returned to his uncle's, near here, with a deep-seated despondency in his heart. He complained to his uncle of the bitterness of his lot; said that America was not what he imagined it; and expressed a passionate longing for his fatherland. Nothing, however, was thought of these repinings. He ate dinner as usual with his uncle's family, got up from the table and without betraying any emotion or arousing any apprehensions in the family, took his pistol and walked out of the house, across the road into a stretch of wood opposite. A few minutes afterwards a shot was heard and a member of the family hastened in the direction it came from, and there, weltering in blood, lay the unfortunate young man, with a fearful hole in his temple. His hand still held the deadly weapon, with which he had drawn his life-blood. His two brothers in Lexington were wired for and came in time to be present at the inquest held over the remains by Squire Chappell.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Miss Claudia Drye, of Bradfordsville, and D. O. McWilliams, of Mississippi, were married Monday.

—George Leach, aged 23 and a widower, was married to Miss Victoria Baker, at Mr. George Baker's, on the 4th. The bride is just 15.

—It is rumored that Secretary Tracy is to be married soon to Miss Porter, of New York. His first wife was burned to death about a year ago.

—John M. Gooch, 21, and Miss Mary F. Dudderar, 20, were united in marriage at Mr. Sam Dudderar's, on the 15th, by Elder J. G. Livingston.

—The Bonanza Mills, at Richmond, owned by Chenault & Burnam, were burned Saturday night, together with several buildings adjacent, by incendiaries. The mill contained, says the Climax, 14,000 bushels of wheat and 200,000 pounds of flour, valued at over $20,000. The mill cost $32,000, besides the lot and the insurance is but $28,500. Maj. Collins' loss is $6,000, with half insurance.

—Go to Middlesboro, Ky., and see how a superb new city is being built. Half-fare rates on all the railroads.

LABASCUS, CASEY COUNTY.

—The people of this place were startled Monday night about 12 o'clock by the piercing screams of a female. On several going out to see what was the matter a woman was discovered to be on fire in front of Mr. Green Shelton's house with only a remnant of clothing left on her, which was torn off by Bob Shelton, who first met her, and Thomas Chelf dashed a bucket of water on her, but it was too late. She was taken to the widow Raney's where she was treated kindly until late this evening, when she died in great agony. She proved to be Mrs. Georgie Ann Brown, whose husband had abandoned her some time ago for another woman. She had camped after night on Tarter's Branch, 1 mile from this place, where, building a fire, she lay down before it, and falling asleep she caught fire, and being awakened ran to this place. Her mournful screams will ring in the ears of a number of persons in this section for many days.

—Though, as a general thing, there is not much stirring news in this section, yet it abounds in relics and curiosities of a past age. Among the former is old Aunt Lucinda Hammonds, of color, the lowest estimate of whose age, by those having the right to know, is 95, while others make her age 100 years. She was never known to be sick enough to need a physician or take medicine, and she is now in full vigor of health, except slight rheumatism in one knee. She hires out for wages and is said to be a fine washer woman. Her teeth are perfectly sound and eyesight good. She never was married, always was temperate, though she smoked tobacco moderately a few years since, but quit on suspecting it injured her health. She lives around among the Hammond connections, and sometimes is known to walk 15 miles in a day. If any other county can beat Casey in the above line let 'em rise and explain.

—I called on last Sunday on the venerable Green Shelton at the old Jimmy Shackelford place. It ought to be known that Uncle Jimmy Shackelford, who died a few years since in his 98th year, was a captain in the war of 1812. Mr. Shelton showed me a fine sword, which is said to have belonged to a British officer and was brought home by Capt. Shackelford. It was also shown a fine pair of silver shoe buckles, worn by Zachariah Shackelford, the father of Capt. James Shackelford, at Cornwallis' surrender in the revolutionary war. They are considerably larger and of a different pattern from any shoe buckles of modern date. If one of the heroes of Yorktown could be resuscitated, draped in costume with his shiny silver knee and shoe buckles, he would throw a modern dupe considerably in the shade.

HUBBLE.

—The election passed off quietly here Tuesday with but 33 votes cast for McCreary and 2 for Gilliam, the prohibition candidate. The colored vote stood hands off here.—The road reviewers selected the ridge line from Carman's through Bright's to Col. Underwood's barn as the location for the proposed road. We hope that all parties will use fair means and that the proper amount of damages may be allowed and that satisfaction will follow.—Dr. Herrin reports Dank Ball right sick on account of measles settling on his lungs.—R. L. Hubble has sold his Clinton Jack to some Missouri parties for $1,500.—Mr. Andy Spoonamore moved his family to our settlement Wednesday. Miss Bettie Spoonamore, of Buena Vista, is visiting Miss Sallie Smith.—A jack man told us last week that on one of his visits to Barcelona, Spain, he saw a large herd of jennets used for dairy purposes.—M. F. Herrin is talking of going to Middlesboro, to look for a location.—S. Harris and G. P. Bright bought some good 1,400-pound steers of Prewitt, this week, at $3. Thomas Woods received J. C. Eubanks' cattle, weighing 1,300 pounds, at $3, bought some time ago.—Robert Hocker has moved to Lexington. Mrs. Joe Swope has returned from a visit to Lexington.—Wm. Hubble said that the democrats had been successful in the U. S. and his sign is that it cleared off Tuesday morning when the vote began. The sign is good, but it may get cloudy.—Colored people here are ceiling their school-house.—Mr. Bab Farris, did you kill Mr. Engleman's old green-headed pet duck when you were hunting out here? He is gone.—Walnuts are worth 25 cents per bushel here.—Dr. Herrin reports Mr. Jos. Herrin in rather a critical condition with pneumonia fever.

The great auction sales of Town lots at Middlesboro, Ky., will commence on November 10th. Half rate excursions on all the railroads, good for 15 days.

The foreign steel and iron men, who have just completed a tour of the South, state that they are more pleased with the prospects of Middlesboro, Ky., than any other place they had visited.

This is said to be the shortest sentence containing all the letters of the alphabet: "Pack my box with five dozen liquor jugs."

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Go to the Opera House to-night and help the boys.

—Jim Burnside, of color, better known as "Bounce," was fined $25 in the police court Tuesday for selling whisky on "Battle Row."

—Mr. G. H. Ballard, of Kansas, formerly of Pulaski county, was united in marriage to Miss Jennie Murphy, of Lincoln county, at the clerk's office, Wednesday, Rev. Tercy officiating.

—The election Tuesday was the most quiet ever held in Garrard county. An exceedingly small vote was polled. Gov. McCreary received in the county about 600 votes. J. C. Gilliam, the prohibition candidate, received about 6 or 7 votes in the entire county.

—James L. Duncan, who is stationed at Hopkinsville as U. S. gauger, is here on a visit. R. G. Price, of Danville, is in town. Miss Alpha Tyree, of Stanford, was visiting friends here the first of the week.

—The Lyon Comedy Co. has played every night this week at the Opera House. On to-morrow, Friday, night they will give a performance for the benefit of the McCreary Guards. The boys will take part in the play, in one scene there being 25 uniformed men on the stage. Everybody should go and give the boys a lift.

—The constitutional convention, after a brilliant display of oratorical pyrotechnics, lasting for over three weeks at a cost of $800 a day in a discussion of the Bill of Rights, during which time Magna Charter, the Declaration of Independence, the Fourth of July, the Revolutionary war, the war of 1812, the late war and everything pertaining to the temporal and spiritual wants of mankind in general were fully ventilated, has notified the people of the State that all the discussion thus far has been simply the skirmish that precedes the general engagement that is to follow. On the 10th of November the discussion on the Bill of Rights will be resumed, the big guns will open and after the 10-inch Columbiads have exhausted their ammunition, the small arms will discharge a volley or two, and this is to be done regardless of expense, as they are resolved to fight it out on this line, if it takes all winter. If the rights of the citizens can be fully set out on paper in the form of a constitution, the question as to their enforcement thereafter is one of comparative insignificance. Men must look out for themselves, as all the interest the Commonwealth has in their affairs is to see that they pay their taxes. It is God for us all and the devil take the hindmost. It is to be hoped that when the debate begins on the 10th that an opportunity will be given the modest members, who have thus far refrained from taking part in the discussions, to say something, if for no other reason than to give them a chance to get their names in the papers, as, for example, Mr. McHenry, Gov. Knott, Col. Young, Mr. Bronston, Mr. Hendrick and others. Many of these gems of oratory will no doubt be preserved in the fifth readers, and such patriotic exclamations as "Give me liberty or give me—$5 a day" will be quoted by the youth of the land in the ages to come.

—Gov. Nichols, of Louisiana, lost a leg, an arm and an eye in defense of the Lost Cause, but is still able to fight the lottery with great vehemence.

—After getting out of jail at Paris Jim Fitzgerald started home by the railroad track and was struck while on the bridge across Stoner by a train and killed. He had lost both arms 20 years ago by the cars. This is the 12th man to get killed on that bridge, besides the one hung from it.

—John M. Wilson, school superintendent of Estill, and Dr. P. A. and Grant Lilly, sons of Judge Lilly, fought over a negro at the polls. Wilson was shot four times and stabbed once by Dr. Lilly, who was shot twice by Wilson, killing him instantly. Wilson died that night. Grant Lilly is badly wounded.

—Monday, on Sinking creek, in Knox county, Thomas Carnes, aged 14, killed John Ferguson, shooting him through the heart with a Winchester. The difficulty grew out of the fact that Ferguson, in company with some four or five other desperate characters, visited the house of young Carnes and grossly insulted his father, an old man about 70 years of age.

—Town Marshal James M. Wester, of Kingston, Tenn., attempted to arrest a drunken man when James Edwards interfered and shot the marshal through the abdomen. Although fatally wounded the marshal rallied, but a ball through Edwards' brain, killing him in a few minutes and an hour afterwards he was also dead.

—During the last fiscal year the United States expended $109,357,534 for pensions, an increase of $22,000,000 over the previous period of corresponding length. It is a greater sum than the assessed value of several States, and is the most prodigious burden ever put upon any people for such a purpose. Verily the backs of the American people are strong and their patience is lasting.—Louisville Times.

California's Dark Side.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., Oct. 29, 1890.

DEAR INTERIOR:—Watermelons and canteloupes are still as plentiful as during August in Kentucky. All kinds of fruit, except oranges, are temptingly displayed at the many fruit stands, including a few strawberries, raspberries and blackberries. Grapes of almost a dozen different varieties are now on the market. About the time the deciduous fruits begin to get scarce or disappear, the oranges will begin to ripen, and consequently during nearly the whole year there is some fresh fruit to be had. I think it is the impression of some in the East that apricots, peaches, pears and such like ripen here at almost all times of the year, but, of course, that is a mistake, as those and all other deciduous fruits mature in certain months just as they do east of the Rockies, and no amount of care and irrigation will make them produce more than one crop. Not so with citrus and small fruits, which can be made to bear almost the entire year by careful attention and plenty of water.

Eastern visitors to Los Angeles, who have read so much about the splendid orchards that surround this city on all sides and are to be seen even within her limits, are very much disappointed to find that there is hardly a decent orchard within a radius of five miles of the center of the city, and that scarcely any of the land within that limit is cultivated at all. There are still thousands of acres between here and the ocean, which is about 15 miles distant, that are used only as cattle ranches, and the same is true to a great extent in other directions. With so little cultivated land surrounding her, I can hardly see how Los Angeles can expect to increase her population and wealth very much.

This part of the State stands a pretty good show for a coal famine this winter. The strikes in the Wellington mines in Australia, from whence most of the coal consumed here comes, and the inability of the mines in New Mexico and Arizona to fill their many orders has made that fuel very scarce already and the situation is gradually growing worse. The former high prices of $10 and $15 per ton have been increased 25 to 30 per cent.

Los Angeles is to have two electric street car lines. One is almost ready for operation. The other, a sort of belt line, will likely be commenced very soon. Both are to use overhead wires instead of the later improvements in that line, thereby disfiguring the streets with unsightly poles and a network of wires, which interfere with the ladders in fighting fire and endanger the lives of the people. She is already well supplied with cable and horse-car lines.

The red scale is found to be doing great damage again to citrus trees in several localities hereabout. The lady bug, which almost cleaned out the white or cushion scale, don't consider the red a part of her job, and consequently the horticulturalist has to resort to sprays and gases to rid the trees of the pest. It is an uphill business to raise oranges and lemons, within 40 or 50 miles of the ocean. We had just as well make up our mind to go where the sun will fry the fat out of him and where dew and fogs seldom come, if he expects to get rich raising oranges. Dampness seems to breed all kinds of pests.

Mean water, dust, flies, mosquitos and fleas are some of the disadvantages of Southern California during the heated term. The flies stick so tight that it is almost necessary to pull them off to get rid of them.

The weather tempered down from the extreme heat of which I wrote in my last and we had a day or two that were pleasant; but it soon turned hot and the mercury ran up to 99° in the shade again. Last night came a heavy fog, and this morning it was pretty cool. T. R. W.

Some one says: At ten years of age a boy thinks his father knows a great deal, at 15 he knows as much as his father, at 20 he knows twice as much, at 30 he is willing to take his advice, at 40 he begins to think his father knows something after all, at 50 he begins to seek his advice and at 60—after his father is dead—he thinks he is the smartest man that ever lived.

"Ah, the terrible liquor question!" cried the prohibition orator in Maine, "How shall we find the solution?" "Go to my drug store in town, mister," replied an unregenerate citizen. "Two winks for bourbon and one for rye."

Alex. A. Arthur, President of the Middlesboro, Ky., Town Company, is distributing (free) a most superb album, of 66 pages, profusely illustrated with photographic views of Middlesboro, Cumberland Gap and surrounding country.

"Do you enjoy sleep, Bridget?" "How can I? The mint I lay down I'm asleep an' the mint I'm awake I have to get up. Where's the time for enjoyin' it?"

All the railroads are offering specially low rates to Middlesboro, Ky., for the sales which commence on November 10th.

W. P. WALTON.

TUESDAY was a glorious day for the democracy and a veritable Waterloo for Reedism and the republicans. The party of the people made gains nearly everywhere, surprising even the most sanguine. The next House will be democratic by a safe majority, some of the estimates placing it as high as 71. The people have spoken from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the Lakes to the Gulf and the verdict is that they do not want the Force bill and utterly repudiate the party which forced on them the iniquitous tariff bill. The result shows a tremendous upheaval of popular indignation, such as will bring the conspirators to their senses.

To hear that Pennsylvania, which at the last election gave Harrison 79,452 plurality, now elects a democratic governor by 16,000 and gives a gain of three Congressmen, sounds about like a fairy tale, yet it is true. Massachusetts also follows suit by electing a democratic governor and giving that party a gain of five in Congress. Wisconsin, another republican stronghold, elects a democratic governor by 20,000, a democratic legislature and 8 out of 9 congressmen. Massachusetts, Michigan and even Kansas has fallen into the democratic line and everything is lovely and the goose hangs high. The democracy has resumed the saddle and the republicans are fleeing to the mountains of Hepsidam! Glory hallelujah!

The New York Times expresses it in a nutshell: "Mr. Thomas B. Reed was elected Speaker of the House in the present Congress by a majority of seven. When the House adjourned the dictator had succeeded in making that majority 24. When the House meets in December, 1891, Mr. Reed, if he is the candidate of his party for Speaker, will be defeated by a majority of at least 70. That is the response of the country to his insolent challenge to accept a House of Representatives which he thanked God was no longer a deliberative body. It is the answer of the country, also, to the tariff policy of the republican party put upon the statute book just in time to be voted on by the people, and to the Force bill postponed 'until after the elections.'"

In response to a polite request from Gov. Hill for a remuneration of the population of New York City, in which glaring errors have been discovered, Secretary Noble addresses a most insulting and uncalled-for letter to that official refusing to comply. The letter not only charges Gov. Hill with acting in a most reprehensible manner, but as good as charges him with lying. The document shows of what small calibre republican cabinet officers are made and how prone they are to disgrace the high offices to which they have by accident been called. If it were not beneath the dignity of his station, Gov. Hill might with much propriety bring the secretary to his senses by applying his foot to that portion of his anatomy most convenient for such reception.

The Richmond Climax says: "The prohibition candidate for Congress wrote to the county clerk in this place to put his name on the 'pole' book. Besides he didn't seem to know that the voting is by ballot." As this was published after the election it can not be claimed to be a campaign lie. Bro. Gilliam is a good old preacher, who was seduced into running for Congress, and if he is not up to snuff on political matters he is excusable.

The congressmen elected Tuesday are not sworn in till the 4th of next March and will not likely be called on to do any work before the first Monday in December, 1891, when the regular session of the 52d Congress begins. Unfortunately Reed's Congress has three months more to do its devilish work, but we opine that it will go mighty slow after studying the election returns.

The democrats of this county ought to be ashamed of themselves for not voting Tuesday. They owed it to McCreary to give him a hearty endorsement, to say nothing of their duty to express their disgust for republican methods and extravagance.

Reed will surrender the job of counting quorums after March 4. The 8th Kentucky may furnish the next speaker and he will be a model of dignity and fairness. Speaker McCreary would sound mighty natural.

The Frankfort Capital exclaims in agony of soul: "When the birthday of the Father of his Country comes the convention we will have with us, and on the Fourth of July we may not be widely separated."

URRY WOODSON is standing up on his hind legs and crowing over Ellis' victory. He certainly has a right to be proud of that 4,000 majority to which he contributed so much.

It looks very much like the republicans have carried the 10th Kentucky.

It was a famous victory!

A GROUND-SWELL.

The Democrats Sweep the Country.

Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Nebraska, Wisconsin and Minnesota Swing into the Democratic Column.

While the Democrats Carry the Next House by 100 to 150 Majority.

McKinley, Cannon and Most of the Other Conspirators Defeated.

A Glorious Victory All Along the Line.

New Mexico elected a democratic delegate.

Georgia continues a delegation of democrats.

A solid democratic delegation is again elected in Mississippi.

Louisiana's delegation will be solidly democratic, a gain of one.

Alabama will again be represented by a solid democratic delegation.

Delaware elects a democratic congressman and a democratic legislature.

Washington re-elects a republican to Congress and a decidedly republican legislature.

The democrats gain two congressmen in North Carolina and elect their State ticket by 20,000.

Large democratic gains were made in New Jersey, but the representation stands as before.

A democratic governor is elected in Massachusetts and the democrats gain four congressmen.

Michigan has elected a democratic governor by 10,000 and a legislature strongly democratic.

The democrats carry Tennessee by 30,000 and gain a congressional district from the republicans.

C. R. Breckinridge's majority in the 2d Arkansas is 2,000 and the democrats have returned a solid delegation.

The vote in the 8th district was very light, Madison only showing up well. McCreary's vote there is about 1,800.

The democratic State ticket is elected in Texas by the usually large majority and the delegation is again solidly democratic.

The democrats elect Pattison governor of Pennsylvania by 16,000 majority and gain three democratic Congressmen.

Georgia sends another democratic delegation to Congress and so does Florida, which gives its democratic State ticket a majority of 15,000.

Both sides are claiming Montana, as before. The democrats seem to have won and should see to it that they are not counted out again.

The next Congress, according to non-partisan estimates, will be composed of 236 democrats and 95 republicans—a democratic majority of 141.

Maryland defeats McComas, the author of the bill to prevent gerrymandering and sends a solid democratic delegation to Congress, a gain of two.

Nebraska changes her delegation to two democrats and one republican, a gain for the former of one. A democratic governor is probably elected.

Indiana comes nobly up with a democratic majority on the State ticket of 20,000, a democratic Legislature and 10 or 11 Congressmen, a gain of one or more.

The democrats gain a congressman in New Hampshire and reduce the republican majority in the legislature. McKinley, the congressman gained, is a relative of our McKinneys.

Wisconsin wheels into the democratic column by electing George W. Peck for governor, a democratic legislature and six Congressmen, a gain in the latter of four. The legislature will elect a democratic successor to Senator Spooner.

The Tillman democratic ticket was elected in South Carolina by 25,000, but the democrats seem to have lost one congressman. The legislature is overwhelmingly democratic and will elect a successor to Wade Hampton.

New York has changed her delegation in Congress from 20 republicans and 14 democrats, to 20 democrats and 14 republicans. Grant is re-elected mayor of New York City by nearly 25,000. It also seems reasonably certain that the democrats have carried the legislature.

There was a landslide in the former republican stronghold of Kansas. Only one republican is elected to Congress, the other six being democrats and alliance men, who will vote with the democrats. This fusion also elects the governor and a majority of the legislature, so good-bye Ingalls!

Oklahoma elected a republican delegate.

Minnesota gives the democracy a net gain of 5 congressmen.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says Warwick's majority over McKinley cannot be less than 230.

In North and South Dakota and Nevada the republicans seem alone to have held their own.

In nearly every instance the democrats who had their seats stolen were returned to Congress.

Old Virginia, God bless her, has elected a solid democratic delegation. Praise the Lord for her redemption!

Iowa has probably gone democratic on the State ticket. She increases her democratic representation by four.

Missouri had five republicans in the 51st Congress. Tuesday not a single one was re-elected and democrats will represent every district.

In West Virginia the republicans concede that a solid democratic delegation to Congress has been elected in that State by majorities ranging from 200 to 1,200.

Illinois will not be represented by Cannon and Rowell any more. These two were defeated for Congress, in which body the democrats gain four. The legislature is also probably democratic.

McKinley, the apostle of High Tariff, is defeated in Ohio and the democrats gain 9 congressmen. Gov. Foster is also defeated. The republican State ticket was elected by about 10,000. Hamilton county went republican.

This is the way Kentucky contributed to the glorious result: Stone beat his republican and prohibition opponents clear out of sight in the 1st; Ellis downed the republican-alliance candidate by a large majority in the 2d, carrying every county in it; Goodnight hardly knew that a republican named James was running against him in the 3d; Montgomery was an easy winner in the 4th; Caruth's majority in the 5th is 5,183; St. John Boyle seeming not to have been in it at all; Dickerson beats O'Neal in the 6th about 4,000; Billy Breckinridge had next to a walk-over, a prohibitionist alone appearing against him; with McCreary it was the same, only more so. His majority is away up in the thousands. In the 9th Paynter's re-election is claimed by over 2,000; while in the 10th things look considerably blue for the democracy.

Even Clark went republican. Wilson, is, of course, elected in the 11th, but the republican majority is cut away down. Whitley, which gave 1,500 for Finley, only gives Wilson 300, while Pulaski doesn't do any better. Howard carried Bell by 400, the first time she ever went democratic.

CHURCHES in Lincoln and adjoining counties desiring the services of a good vocal music teacher would do well to consult J. M. Sibold, of this place.

A PETITION is being largely signed for a mail route from here to Hustonville via McKinney to run tri-weekly. We hope the effort will succeed, but we would like it better if it would be a daily.

THE attractions booked for Walton's Opera House so far are Vreeland & Midland's Minstrels Nov. 28, Heine Family Concert Co. Dec. 5 and 6, Grace Gordon Comedy Co., one week, beginning Dec. 8, Duncan & Clark's Female Minstrels Jan. 5 and the McGibeny Family Jan. 9. Numerous other companies have written for dates, but contracts have not yet been signed.

BADLY HURT.—Frank Dugan, an L. & N. bridge carpenter from Loretto, fell from Cedar Creek bridge, Tuesday, and landing on his head, was seriously, tho' not fatally hurt. Several of his teeth were knocked out, his nose broken, his shoulder sprained and his whole face looked like raw meat. He was brought here by the company's physician, Dr. J. F. Peyton, who fixed him up and made him as comfortable as possible.

THE list of claims allowed by the Casey county court, which this office has just printed for Mr. G. A. Prewitt, county clerk, shows a total of $4,231.81, which embraces pay of all officers, including magistrates, &c. The county judge and attorney each get $500 and the superintendent of schools about $650. The claims against this county amount, with the salaries of the officers, to over $13,000, or more than four times as much as Casey, although she has within 3,000 of as much population as Lincoln.

COL. W. O. BRADLEY is betting on Hill in the 10th. After looking over the returns he says he feels like the old doctor who was called in a case of midwifery. The mother and the twins all died and the doctor thought he had done well to save the old man. In the general wreck, the colonel is glad even to save one little Kentucky district. He is taking things philosophically and is so immersed in his large law practice that he doesn't seem to realize that a house has fallen on him and his party.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL FOUND HIM.—In September last Rev. J. J. Lafferty, editor of the Richmond, Va., Christian Advocate, had published in nearly every paper in Kentucky a notice asking the whereabouts of Lemuel W. Powell, who formerly lived in Albemarle county, Va. This paper printed it Sept. 19 and it at once caught the eye of a gentleman of that name living in this county. He wrote to Mr. Lafferty and the result of the correspondence is that he is $2,000 better off. Mr. Lafferty, who owned property near Crozet, in Albemarle, had bought of the heirs of Mr. Powell, Sr. his farm adjoining. They told him that L. W. Powell was dead, but intimations coming to him afterwards that this was probably untrue, Mr. Lafferty decided to advertise as stated. Mr. Powell proved his rights and was paid his portion of money arising from the sale of the land. When the writer published the notice he had no idea that he knew Mr. Powell, but it turns out that he came to Kentucky about the time we did and while we were building several sections of the Cincinnati Southern railroad in Pulaski, he was in our employ for a year or two. He married in Pulaski, where he lived for some time, and afterwards moved to this county. He has not been in Virginia for 16 years. The moral of this little story is too obvious for comment. But we will be permitted to remark in passing that advertising pays both the advertiser and "advertisee."

THE election of Tuesday was the driest ever held in this county. At these precincts, owing to the failure of the officers appointed to obey the order of the court, the polls were not opened till 9 o'clock, and then almost entirely by a new set appointed by the sheriff. A Sabbath-like quietude reigned the entire day and at the close of the polls it was found that the total vote cast was only 291, of which McCreary received 271 and Gilliam 20. The total vote of the Stanford precincts, it will be remembered, is over 1,000. J. W. Lasley, clerk of the Turnersville polls, gave us prompt returns as follows: McCreary 55, Gilliam 16.

The vote in this county is as follows: Stanford No. 1, McCreary 128, Gilliam 13

No. 2, " 143 " 7

Crab Orchard, " 105 " 28

Walnut Flat, " 40 " 3

Hubble, " 33 " 2

Turnersville, " 55 " 16

Hustonsville, " 21 " 10

Kingsville, " 33 " 2

Waynesburg, " 66 " 11

Total " 715 " 101

McCreary's majority is 715 and the total vote but 816, notwithstanding there are 3,500 voters in the county, over 2,000 of whom are democrats.

Only a few white republicans and scarcely any negroes voted in the election. They recognized the fact that they were "not in it" and held aloof.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The case of Mart Smith for the murder of Oe Smith, after occupying the court for nearly a week, was finally submitted to the jury at 8 a. m. Tuesday and in about an hour a verdict of not guilty was returned. It is said that at first one man was for 10 and another for 2 years. Thus ends a long drawn out trial that has cost the State many thousands of dollars and utterly bankrupted the accused. He tells us that he had $7,000 in cash, besides stock and land, now all are gone and he is in debt besides. While some will regret that there was an acquittal, the majority of the people are glad that the case is disposed of. If Smith will now shun bad company, let liquor alone and go to work to retrieve his lost fortune, he will be encouraged by all good citizens.

The suit of G. G. Wine vs. John S. Owsley for $1,050 for a monument, which the latter claimed he did not order, resulted in a hung jury, which stood 6 to 6.

The testimony was still being taken when we went to press last evening.

The case of Henry A. Pleasants against Dr. Steele Bailey for $8,000 damages, for malpractice, has occupied the court for the last day or two. Mr. Pleasants claims that the doctor did not set his broken leg in a skillful manner and that the limb is permanently injured by the operation. The doctors all testify that the setting and treatment was all that could have been and that it is a wonder that the leg was saved at all. Mr. Pleasants is represented by Judge R. J. Breckinridge, Robert Harding and Col. W. O. Bradley and the doctor by Col. Welch, Judge Sauley and W. H. Miller. The trial has created considerable interest and the result will be closely watched.

Judge Morrow discharged the other petit jury yesterday and will devote the remainder of the term to equity business after the Bailey case. As the Wayne court commences next Monday, Judge Morrow will be forced to leave us at noon Saturday.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. T. J. Godbey will preach at Logan's Creek, next Sunday, at 3:30 o'clock.

—Rev. James L. Sampey, librarian of the Southern Theological Seminary, and a well-known minister, died suddenly, Friday.

—There is no preacher in Lawrenceburg at present. This leaves pastorless the Baptist, Christian, Methodist and Presbyterian churches, each one of which is able and willing to support a pastor.—C. J.

—The protracted meeting at Berea, Scott county, conducted by Elder W. R. Lloyd, closed Sunday night with 34 additions. The interest in the community was intense. Only two or three were under 20 years of age.—Times.

—E. S. Boswell, State visitor, will address the Sunday-School workers at Crab Orchard, Monday night next, at Hustonsville Tuesday night, McCormack's church Wednesday night and McKendree Thursday night. Speaking will begin at 7 o'clock at each place.

—The Rev. Virgil Maxey, relative of ex-Senator Maxey, and who attended the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary a short time, has been deposed from the ministry and excluded from the church for trying to be an actor on week days and a preacher on Sunday.

—This is the way George Jacob Schweinfurth, the Illinois Dutch Christ, recently appeared upon the streets of Rockford: He wore a glossy silk hat, white English checked pants, a flashy necktie with gold stripes, black Prince Albert coat, brown kid gloves and shoes as bright as a sunburst.

—The meeting at the Baptist church grows in interest. Rev. L. H. Salin is presenting the gospel truths with great power and has drawn many to church who rarely attend Divine worship. There has been but one addition yet, Mrs. J. H. McAlister, who was a member of the Christian church. The services will continue till further notice, certainly over Sunday.

—Along the West African coast there are now about 200 churches, 35,000 converts, 100,000 adherents, 275 schools and 30,000 pupils. "Thirty-five languages or dialects have been mastered, into which portions of the Scripture and religious books and tracts and general educational books have been translated and printed, and some knowledge of the gospel has reached about 8,000,000 of benighted Africans.—The Living Church.

There is more coal and iron in the immediate vicinity of Middlesborough, Ky., than anywhere else in the South.

—J. P. Embury of Madison, sold to Kratz a car-load of New York cattle at $4.10.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Well, did you ever?

—Didn't we wallop 'em.

—The wire gang will commence stringing another wire from Middlesboro to Louisville next week.

—Sam'l. McClure sold a farm to W. R. Whitaker for $1,000 and J. W. Prewitt sold one to J. S. Jones for $300. Both on Skaggs Creek.

—We have just learned of the frightful burning of two children of Rev. P. L. Johnson, on Copper Creek, which occurred one day last week. A gasoline lamp which had been in use by the family a short time, exploded and the fluid was thrown over the unfortunate children, fatally burning them. Their recovery is almost hopeless.

—C. W. Ping was arrested here Tuesday night and jailed on writs issued during circuit court on liquor indictments and one charging him with perjury. An agreement of some sort was made or understood at the time that if the defendant would leave the county no effort would be made to prosecute, but if he returned the law would be enforced. Tuesday night he was seen on the streets and was arrested.

—The quietest election day that ever passed here was Tuesday. Had one not known it was election day the action of the people would not have betrayed it. Not a yell nor a shout was heard during the day. Not a drunken man was seen or even known to be drinking. The vote throughout the county was extremely light. Only 102 votes were polled in this precinct. McCreary got 89 of these. Not more than 450 votes were polled in the county out of 2,700. McCreary gets as much as 410 of the votes cast. Gilliam's name was not known in the Scaffold Cane precinct.

—The sensation of the week here was the elopement of Mr. Robert Brown, night telegraph operator, and Miss Leila Williams, youngest daughter of Mr. J. J. Williams, a prominent merchant of this place. Wednesday morning when the household began to stir Miss Williams' absence was discovered and a search was instituted which developed the fact that she had left the house during the night and the supposition that she had eloped was strengthened when it was known that Mr. Brown was also among the missing. A dispatch from Jellico with Mr. and Mrs. Brown's name signed thereto told the tale. They returned here via Livingston, the same evening where they were welcomed by friends and the whistles of three locomotives and bells ringing by Mr. Brown's engineer friends. The couple are now stopping at the residence of Dr. J. J. Brown, the groom's father. Mr. Brown is a deserving young man. He had charge of the post office here for four years and has been in the telegraph service three years and has always discharged his duties faithfully. Mrs. Brown is a handsome and entertaining lady and we hereby extend our congratulations and best wishes.

John Parkhill. of Portland, who has made himself famous as being the only man in the United States who did not want a pension, passed through Astoria on his way to San Francisco to the volunteer firemen's reunion. Mr. Parkhill, who is over 90 years of age, served through the Seminole war in Florida in 1838, and also in the Mexican war.

He was one of the handful of frontiersmen who raised a company to fight the Mexicans before the United States took the matter in hand, and afterward served all through the war. He refused to enter the War of the Rebellion because he thought it was too much like fighting brothers.

For years pension agents have made life a burden to him in their endeavors to secure a pension for him. He fought them manfully for a long time, as he said he was able to make his living. Finally the papers came and with them his back pension, and it has been coming ever since, actually forced on him against his will.—Astoria (Ore.) Columbian

Common labor in Middlesborough, Ky., is in great demand at prices ranging from $1.50 to $1.75 per day.

USEFUL INFORMATION.

The latest discovery in the way of cures for Bright's disease is a diet of fresh buttermilk.

It is said that the onion is a great sleep inducer, and about equal to quinine for malaria.

It is only one person in a thousand who becomes a centenarian, and hardly six persons among a thousand even attain 75 years of age.

In the case of an electrical storm it is best to close up the house tight as the warm air current from the open windows and doors form good paths for the lightning discharge.

A wash that will prevent the hair from falling out is made of one ounce of powdered camphor and one quart of boiling water. When it is cool, bottle and wash the head with it once a week.

To cure a felon, mix equal parts of strong ammonia and water, and hold your finger in it for 15 minutes. After that withdraw it and tie a piece of cloth completely saturated with the mixture around the felon and keep it there till dry.

To give a brilliant white light, a lamp needs a thorough cleansing every little while. The oil should be poured out of fount, leaving no dregs on the bottom. The fount should then be washed in strong soapuds, rinsed in warm water and dried. It should then be filled with fresh oil. The burner should be boiled in soda and water until the network that crosses it is freed from dirt and dust. If the wick has become clogged with sediment, replace it with a new one.

To tan or taw skins with the hair on for rugs and other uses, first thoroughly wash the skin and remove all fleshy matter from the inner surface, then clean the hair or wool with warm water and soft soap, and rinse well. Take 1 pound each of common salt and ground alum, and 1 ounce borax, dissolve in hot water and add sufficient rye meal to make a thick paste, which spread on the flesh side of the skin. Fold it lengthwise, the flesh side in, the skin being quite moist, and let it remain for ten days or two weeks in an airy and shady place, then shake out and remove the paste from the surface and wash and dry. For a heavy skin a second similar application of salt and alum may be made. Afterwards pull and stretch the skin with the hands or over a beam and work on the flesh side with a blunt knife.

No New Coins for the Present.
Superintendent Boshyshell, of the mint, received from Washington a communication from E. O. Leech, director of the mint, conveying the disappointing intelligence that the department at Washington would not take any action until next summer in regard to providing new designs for coins, under the bill recently passed by congress. Director Leech explains that he is so busily engaged in the preparation of the report of his department and the secretary of the treasury's time will be so much occupied for some months that the matter of changing the models and designs of coins cannot be taken up until late in the spring.

Since the bill became a law Superintendent Boshyshell has been in receipt daily of letters from persons anxious to enter into the competition, showing a widespread interest in the subject. As it was hoped to change the five cent nickel piece and get rid of the buzzard dollar as quickly as practicable, the delay will be received with universal regret.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The Irish Rack Rents.
The trouble about the Irish rent question is that the Irish people generally consider a rent contract as having no moral obligation. The truth has been handed down from generation to generation that their ancestors were wrongfully dispossessed of their lands, and that the title of the large landlords, while legally perfect enough, is in its last analysis based upon robbery. The rent is therefore considered not so much a pecuniary burden as a patriotic grievance.

With our forefathers it was not the price of the tea, but the principle of the tea tax, that led to the revolution, and in like manner, as the Irishman looks at it, the rent is not so much a financial as a political question, though when the crops fail payment of the rent is an impossibility. To the extent of considering it a political question the English government agrees with him, and hence the recent arrests. If pounds and pence only were involved it would have left the landlord to take care of himself.—New York World.

Didn't Want a Pension.
John Parkhill, of Portland, who has made himself famous as being the only man in the United States who did not want a pension, passed through Astoria on his way to San Francisco to the volunteer firemen's reunion. Mr. Parkhill, who is over 90 years of age, served through the Seminole war in Florida in 1838, and also in the Mexican war.

He was one of the handful of frontiersmen who raised a company to fight the Mexicans before the United States took the matter in hand, and afterward served all through the war. He refused to enter the War of the Rebellion because he thought it was too much like fighting brothers.

For years pension agents have made life a burden to him in their endeavors to secure a pension for him. He fought them manfully for a long time, as he said he was able to make his living. Finally the papers came and with them his back pension, and it has been coming ever since, actually forced on him against his will.—Astoria (Ore.) Columbian

Common labor in Middlesborough, Ky., is in great demand at prices ranging from $1.50 to $1.75 per day.

Big Connecticut Pumpkins.

Some farmers go away from Connecticut and settle in the west, saying that the old state is played out in an agricultural way, but the Nutmeg state is still somewhat on pumpkins, or else Walter Crissey, of Southington, is mistaken. Crissey set out to raise pumpkins this year and succeeded. He planted eight acres with field corn and in every other hill dropped a pumpkin seed. He has just harvested the pumpkin crop, and there are 5,000 of them, as big and round and yellow and mellow as the full harvest moon looked to be a week ago.

Having gathered the 5,000 pumpkins Crissey hardly knows what to do with them, unless he builds them into a yellow pyramid like Cheops. The village arithmetician of Southington has done some figuring, and computes that each one of Walter Crissey's pumpkins will make five ordinary pumpkin pies, and five pies multiplied by 5,000 pumpkins ought to yield pies enough to pave the whole main street of Southington. If the pies were strung along the country in single file, tin touching tin, there ought to be more than four miles of pumpkin pies, so the mathematician calculates.—Cor. New York Sun.

The Cut of the Fall Coat.
The Prince Albert coat has not realized the promise that its infrequent appearance in light summer fabrics gave of its probable reinstatement in the fall. In fact, this coat of demi-dress has been superseded by the four button black thibet cutaway—the fourth button not intended to close in front. The lapel of this coat has an unskimped appearance, and buttons low enough to favor a three inch Ascot or De Joinville scarf, upon which the best tailors now do their reckoning for waistcoat openings.

The collar is also cut so as to be ample, and to achieve this effect is wider at that point immediately in the middle line of the back of the coat. There is a slant pocket for the kerchief and a change pocket with flap. The coat is cut well in to the figure, and the cutaway not too sharply made, the skirts being of good length. The buttons are of silk braid, and there is a narrow row of stitching running as close as possible to the edge of the garment. It is an agreeably suave and most useful garment to the man fortunate enough to be able to possess one.—Clothier and Furnisher.

An Undertakers' Combine.
The Kansas undertakers have concluded that there are enough men engaged in that business in the state to bury all the dead and propose to form a combine against new firms. Some hundred or more of them have been quietly in convention, and a scheme has been formulated by which the men now in business will monopolize the trade. No publicity has been given the meeting, and when questioned by newspaper correspondents they declare the organization was simply to "elevate the business."

In speaking of the business transacted one of the members said: "We simply keep down the number of men in the state who engage in the undertaking business. Our scheme will be to boycott those firms which sell to them, and frown down in every way on new firms. It is simply a matter of self protection for us, as there are already more undertakers in the state than the business demands."—Cor. Kansas City Times.

An Extraordinary Tow.
The Leary raft towing venture is about to be cast in the shade by an ocean journey with a fleet of flat boats. The powerful ocean tugs Haviland and Heiphausen have left the harbor here for the purpose of towing the great Nicaragua canal plant to the scene of operations.

An ocean voyage with a mammoth dredge and a dozen scows will be made along the coast to the West Indies and thence to Greytown, Nicaragua. The dredge is now awaiting the big propeller at Charleston, S. C., where it was constructed. After the big tugs put to sea with their burden it is estimated that three weeks' towing will be necessary to bring the unwieldy burden into Greytown harbor.—New York Telegram.

Fourteen Thousand People Present.
When Hiram M. Miltenberger led his blushing fiancée, Miss Nora M. Coulter, out on the race track of the Elkhart County Agricultural society at Goshen, Sept. 23, and was there married to her in the presence of 14,000 people, he was the hero of the biggest wedding, so far as attendance is concerned, that ever occurred in northern Indiana. The happy couple were the recipients of presents valued at $400, donated by the merchants of the city.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

His Fifty-seventh Vote.
Uncle Kenniston, of Appleton, Mo., voted for the fifty-seventh time in a state election Sept. 8 last. He cast his first vote for Andrew Jackson for president, and has never missed going to the polls and voting. As an exemplary performer of a public duty we hold him up to the attention of younger men.—Lexington Journal.

A Brooklyn jury has given Alexander Ellis a verdict of $60 in a suit brought against a druggist who furnished extract of carboic acid when a "solution" was called for. Ellis put the stuff on a bunton, and gets the $60 as a salve for his feelings.

The latest "boy orator" to come forward is Irving Jay Steening, the child phenomenon of Rochester, Ind. He is not quite 6 years old, but he can deliver a fifty minutes' address with astonishing eloquence and self possession.

It is reported from Fort-de-France, in Martinique, that the court has condemned to a fine and one year's imprisonment the woman Adeline Hercule, in whose house the flagration of June 22 originated.

A perfect opal, with a movable drop in the center, was found in California recently. A negro at the Kimberly (South Africa) diamond mines found a diamond of the same character in 1898.

HOW TO SWEEP A STORE.—Don't use a leaky old sprinkling pot to slop the floor all over in puddles when you sweep. Have wet sawdust and put a row of it across one end of the store and sweep that right along to the other end, just like a regiment marching across a ten-acre lot. It catches all the dust and carries it along. If it gets a little dry add some more. Some folks scatter sawdust all over the floor, but that's no good; the reason for using sawdust is to avoid wetting the floor all over and to have something that will absorb the dust.

MIDDLESBOROUGH LAND SALE.

The Home-Seekers' Opportunity—One Fare for the Round Trip via the C. & H. D.
Middlesborough, Ky., now has an invested capital of $50,000 with a large and increasing population and work for thousands. For the capitalist and investor it offers unparalleled opportunities. Gigantic improvements projected and under way make it a Mecca for the home-seeking artisan and mechanic. The Middlesborough Town Company make special inducements to those purchasing and building. The great Land Sale at Middlesborough will occur Nov. 15, and in response to the general demand the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton R. R. will sell on Nov. 7 and tickets to Middlesborough and return at one fare for the round trip at all points on the line. For rates, pamphlets and full information apply to any agent of the C. & H. D. or E. D. McCormick, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Particular Citizen.—"These new red stamps are not as adhesive as they ought to be." Postal Official—"I guess you never tried carrying a sheet of them in your pocket on a hot day."—New York Weekly.

Happy Hoosiers
Wm. Timmons, postmaster of Idaville, Indiana, writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from kidney and liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best kidney and liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only six bottles at A. R. Penny's drug store."

"Galaxy" or Milky Way is from a Greek word signifying milk and was so named by the early Greek astronomers from its irregular milky whiteness, not then supposed to be stars, but of cloudy substance. The Latins called it Via Lactea.

Do not Suffer any Longer.
Knowing that a cough can be checked in a day and that a consumptive cough, broken in a week, we hereby guarantee Dr. Acker's English Cough Remedy, and will refund the money to all who buy this remedy, and do not find our statement correct. For Sale by A. R. Penny, Druggist.

Our Very Best People

Dr. Acker's English Pills
Are active, effective and pure. For sick headache, constipation, loss of appetite, bad complexion and biliousness, they have never been equaled either in America or abroad. For sale by A. R. Penny, Druggist.

That Terrible Cough
In the morning, hurried or difficult breathing, raising phlegm, tightness in the chest, quickened pulse, chilliness in the evening or sweats at night all or any of these things are the first stages of consumption. Dr. Acker's English Cough Remedy will cure these fearful symptoms, and is sold under a positive guarantee by A. R. Penny, Druggist.

The First Symptoms of Death.
Tired feeling, dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores are all positive evidence of poisoned blood. No matter how it became poisoned it must be purified to avoid death. Dr. Acker's English Blood Purifier has never failed to remove scrofulous or syphilitic poisons. Sold under positive guarantee at A. R. Penny's.

Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills.
An important discovery. Tones up the liver, stomach and bowels, improves the nerves. A new principle. They speedily cure biliousness, flatulency, torpid liver, piles and constipation. Sold by J. B. Owens, Astoria, Ore. Smallest, most delicate, most effective. 50 cents. Samples free at A. R. Penny's Stanford.

An Important Matter.
Druggists everywhere report that the sales of the Restorative Nervine—a nerve food and medicine—are astonishing, exceeding any thing they ever had, while it gives universal satisfaction in headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, sexual debility, indigestion, poor memory, dizziness, etc. L. H. Barton & Co., Troy, N. Y.; Anthony & Murphy, of Battle Creek, Mich.; C. R. Woodworth & Co., of Fort Wayne, Ind., and hundreds of others state that they never had sold any medicine which sold so rapidly, or gave such satisfactory results. Trial bottles of this great medicine and book on Nervous Diseases free at A. R. Penny's, who guarantees and recommends it.

Failures in Life.
People fail in many ways. In business in morality, in religion, in happiness, and in health. A weak heart is often an unsuspected cause of failure in life. If the blood does not circulate properly in the lungs, there is shortness of breath, asthma, etc. In the brain, dizziness, headache, etc. In the stomach, wind, pain, indigestion, faint spells, etc. In the liver, torpidity, constipation, etc. Pain in the left side, shoulder and stomach is caused by heart strain. For all these maladies Dr. Miles' New Cure for the heart and lungs is the best remedy. Sold, guaranteed and recommended by A. R. Penny. Treatise free.
